

BY THE 88
COMMANDER
IN CHIEF.

Hese are to require all Souldiers whatsoever, To forbear to break into any Orchards, Gardens, and Yards of the People of this Nation, or to plunder any Fruits, Cabbage, or Roots there growing, to the prejudice of the Owners. They are also to forbear to gather any Green Pease, or Beans in any of their Fields, upon penalty of under-going such severe punishment, as to a Court-Martiall, held for the Quarters or Regiment (whereof they are Members) shall be thought fit. And all Officers are hereby required to take care they see the premisses put in execution.

R<sup>t</sup>. LILBURN.

*Given under my Hand and Seal at Dalkeith,
the fourth day of July, 1653.*

---

Printed at Leith, 1653.